CREMATION.

The cremation movement has not ended yet in Europe. A petition has been very numerous signed in the principal cities of Germany for the enactment of a law permitting the incineration of dead bodies, and it is to be presented to the reichstag at the present session. The agitation takes a new turn in view of the late discovery in Germany of an acid which solidifies ashes to the hardness of marble. It is proposed, when cremation has been fully legalized, to convert the ashes of the dead into busts and other memorials. A widow, for instance, might have her husband worked over into several cameo portraits, which could be distributed among her friends and relatives. Or a doting parent, with a large number of small boys, might, in dying, provide in his will to have his mortal remains made into playing marbles for his sons' amusement. Some men are large enough to furnish the marble for veneering a whole house, perhaps, and thus he who carried a swell front all his life might make an elegant "swell-front" after death. None need be compelled to "sleep in dull, cold marble," for under this utilitarian system we could all serve bright and cheerful purposes. We predict that this discovery will rapidly advance the cause of cremation, and that "every man his own tombstone" will soon be the cry in Germany.

REPEAL OF THE SPECIE RESUMPTION LAW.—A petition is circulating in the Atlantic States praying a repeal of the Specie Resumption Law, establishing the time for the year 1879. For reasons it sets out as follows:

- First. That so much of the act of January 14, 1875, as requires a return to specie payments be unconditionally repealed.
- Second. That all national bank notes be permanently retired from circulation and national legal-tender treasury notes be issued from the treasury of the United States in their steads.
- Third. That the national bonded debt, or at least a large portion of the same be refunded into bonds bearing a low rate of interest, not to exceed 3 65 per cent. per annum, interest convertible with national legal tender paper money at the pleasure of the holder.
- Fourth. That the national legal-tender currency be made receivable for all custom duties. And to this end our petitioners will ever pray.

SHERMAN'S REPORT.—Gen. Sherman's report shows that the liberalities of the country are not in any immediate peril through an excessive standing army. Thirty thousand men will cover the entire forces of the country, at present enrolled. It is shown that this limited body is very abundantly occupied preserving peace on the frontiers, and that they are fully capable of maintaining it, if the control of Indian supplies is put into the hands of the army instead of thieving commissioners. The General further recommends that the troops be stationed among the Indians to preserve peace instead of on the confines of their reservation as at present.

BANK OF CALIFORNIA.—The reserve in process of accumulation by the Bank of California for the payment of the first installment of notes given to depositors will be released in a few weeks. The bank it will be remembered, owed its depositors about $9,000,000 on the resumption of business, for which notes were given payable in three six and nine months. The affairs of the bank have progressed very smoothly since the resumption.

CHINA CASES.—The U. S. Supreme Court has appointed the 11th of January for hearing argument upon the celebrated Chinese case coming up from California, and involving the question whether a State can lawfully exclude immigrants on the ground of previous immorality, not amounting to felony. The denial of this right is based, by the court from which the case is appealed, upon the application of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Colonel Fair and His Cow.

The following anecdote—which, if true, is too good to be lost—is being repeated on the streets of Virginia City:

Colonel Fair owns a valuable cow which provides his family with an abundant supply of the much-desired and seldom obtained pure, rice, lacteal fluid. A short time since, as the storm-clouds were observed gathering in the western sky, it was deemed prudent to have the cow shod, and it was led to an experienced farrier's, where the operation of shoeing was performed—and a bill—as usual in such cases—was sent up to the Colonel's office. The bill was returned unpaid, and the farrier naturally sought Colonel Fair, to receive an explanation. Thinking the Colonel considered the charge too high, the man explained that it was more difficult to shoe a cow than to render a horse a similar service; that there was a great deal more work about the job; that shoes had to be made expressly for the occasion, etc. "Oh, the charge is all right, my son," affectionately responded the Colonel; "but—" "But what, Mr. Fair?" "But you have charged it to the Hale & Norcross. Now you see, it was only last week that my horse was shod, and it was charged to Hale & Norcross. Suppose you change it to Utah? Yes, that will do," added the Colonel, after a moment's reflection; "charge it to the Utah. And my son—" Here the Colonel again hesitated, and was for a moment absorbed in thought; then he brightened up, as if a happy thought struck him, and added: "Charge it to the Utah; only, don't call it a cow; say it was a horse."

The great telescope recently erected in the Paris Observatory is to be completely overshadowed in the size and power by the instrument now in course of construction for the new Observatory in Vienna. This is the largest yet ever attempted, and is being made in Dublin. The length will be thirty-two feet, the object glass will have an aperture of at least twenty-six inches, and the great base casting weighing eight tons, will form a chamber twelve feet long, eight high and four and a half wide. The tube will be entirely of steel, and all the axes will have their friction relieved by anti-friction apparatus. It is expected that the instrument will be completed by the Autumn of 1878. It took six years to build the Paris Reflector, which costs about $40,000.

CHANGED HANDS.—The Evening Post has changed hands, the majority of the stock, it is alleged, having passed into the hands of Senator Jones. J. T. Goodman, formerly of the Enterprise, takes charge as President, Business Manager and Editor.

A FATHER.—Senator John P. Jones has become the father of a pretty girl, who will, no doubt, be the delight of the household for years to come.

TO RENT.—Room to rent. Enquire at Richardson & Draunman's saloon. *

OUR TOWN ROUTE.

Mr. Chas Thurston will hereafter have charge of the town route of the JOURNAL, delivering the paper to subscribers, and to him alone will they be responsible for payment from and after this date. All persons owing to the present time will please call at this office and settle their accounts. Mr. Thurston will deliver the paper promptly, and no one will have cause for complaint on this score. If you wish the Journal at your place of business or residence give him your order.

POSTPONED.—On account of the Cantata, Mr. John Jacks, with the Firmin Sisters, will not come here until Saturday, playing that and the following evening. In this connection we re-produce from the Carson Appeal the annexed notice:

Our resident and transient playgoers improved the leisure time by the general suspension of business on Thanksgiving Day, to partonize the theater very generously both at the matinee and the evening's performance. The fact is, that until Mr. John Jacks and the Firmin Sisters severed their connection with the quite numerous dramatic troupe with which they came here soon after the Virginia fire, we were hardly conscious of how emphatically they were the soul and life of that company. For the matinee they provided a very acceptable programme. It consisted of a series of recitations and songs, and the laughable domestic interlude of "A Night at the Club." In the evening the thrilling scene which transpires between Money-penny and June Learoyd, in the concluding scene of Boucicault's "Long Strike," and a new extravaganza entitled "Fun on the Ranch," constituted the entertainment. A very numerous audience were present, many of whom remained to participate in the dance which follows. We understand that Mr. Jacks and the Misses Firmin are contemplating a professional tour along the line of the Central Pacific Railroad. We take great pleasure in assuring the lovers of the drama in the towns which they will visit that they may bestow their patronage upon these artists with the full assurance of being pleasantly and profitably entertained.

CARR.—Information is wanted of Emanuel Carr. When last heard from was in Reno—sometime in July. Any information communicated to his anxious father E. N. Carr, 318 East 14th street, New York, will be gratefully remembered.

FOUR LILA DUNCAN.

The Gross Carelessness of Railroad Employees—A Suit for $50,000 Damages Against the Central Pacific Railroad.

A case in which the gross carelessness of some of the employees of the Central Pacific Railroad is alleged has been instituted in the Third District Court of San Francisco. The complaint is made by Agnes, O. Duncan, administratrix, against the railway company, and the plaintiff alleges that on the 21st of May, 1874, Lila Duncan purchased a ticket at Omaha for passage over the Union Pacific Railroad to San Francisco. At Ogden the car in which Lila and others were in was detached from the rest of the train and switched off on a side track, and the doors of said car were locked and fastened, and Lila and the passengers with her were forced to remain in the car without food, water or sleeping accommodation during the night. The other portion of the train safely arrived in due season at the Oakland terminus of the road. Lila and her fellow-passengers who were locked up in the stationary car through the night were on the following day directed to enter a car attached to a freight train, and then the train proceeded on its way. When it arrived at Reno one of the railway employees said that the train would stop for half an hour. While there the train was backed without warning and with great force, and Lila was thrown from the car and across the track. She was

TERRIBLY CRUSHED.

And died within six hours afterwards. A telegram was sent to the office of the railroad company in San Francisco asking what disposition should be made of the remains, and the sum of $20 was forwarded by the agent at San Francisco for burial expenses. The agent at Reno was directed to hold the baggage of the deceased, and not to deliver the same until the sum of $20 was returned. The sympathizing strangers were so shocked at the heartless and unfeeling proposal of the defendants that they immediately collected from the bystanders the sum of $300, and loaned the same to the plaintiff in this case, the sister of the deceased, for the purpose of giving the deceased a fitting burial, and no part of the funeral expenses were paid by the defendant. Plaintiff adds that Lila Duncan was not a minor, and that at the time of her death was indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of about $6,000 United States gold coin; that said plaintiff, as administratrix and an heir, together with the other heirs and next of kin of Lila Duncan, received and suffered

PECUNIARY LOSS AND DAMAGE.

To the amount of $50,000 United States gold coin; that on the 2d of November, 1875, letters of administration upon the estate of Lila Duncan, deceased, were issued by the Probate Court of San Francisco and county to the plaintiff, wherefore plaintiff claims damages against the Central Pacific Railroad Company, first, in the sum of $50,000 United States gold coin, for pecuniary loss and damage received by reason of the defendants having carelessly and negligently caused the death of said Lila Duncan; second, in the further sum of $300 United States gold coin, the necessary expenses incurred in the funeral and burial of said Lila Duncan; third, for costs of suit, and fifth, for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and reasonable. The complaint was drawn up by Messrs. Hamilton & Heath, attorneys for plaintiff. Full particulars of the accident to Lila Duncan were published in the Journal at the time. The matter was brought before the Grand Jury of Washoe county for investigation. It was shown that Lila was paralyzed, and standing on the platform, was unable to protect herself when the cars clashed together, and was thrown between and run over. Such being the truth of the case there is but little danger of the railroad company being mulcted for any considerable sum; in fact it is not likely that the plaintiff will recover any damages.

JELLY.—Henry F. Jelly, one of the two surviving passengers of the ill-fated Pacific, passed through Reno on the overland train Sunday morning going East.

FOR SALE.—Nels. Hammond has a house for sale. Inquire of him for particulars.

ORGANIZED.—The First Baptist Church of Reno was organized on Sunday 28th inst. at the Reno Opera House, under the labors of Rev. C. L. Fisher, Missionary for Western Nevada. The council was organized by choosing Rev. C. L. Fisher, Mod., and Deacon Z. N. Goldsby, Clerk. Fifteen persons came into the organization. Sermon by Rev. C. A. Biteman; charge to the church by Rev. C. A. Biteman and recognition prayer by Deacon Z. N. Goldsby, of Virginia. After which the church and congregation repaired to the bank of the Truckee and witnessed the ordinance of baptism of two persons being buried in the likeness of Christ's death (see Romans, VI, 3, 4), being the first ever immersed in this place. Others are expected to follow soon.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of the officers and teachers of the M. E. Sunday School, held on Sunday last, the following officers were elected to serve for one year: Superintendent, J. W. Madrell; Assistant Superintendent, J. T. Farrar; Secretary, C. L. Haywards; Treasurer, Miss Alice Stiner; Librarian and Organist, Miss Ruth Stiner; Executive Committee, E. C. Sessious, Wm. Webster and J. Stiner. It was decided to have a Christmas Tree on Christmas Eve, and a meeting is called for Sunday next, after Sunday School, to make the necessary arrangements. The School is flourishing, having an average attendance of 75, which is the largest known in its history.

DANCE.—At the last meeting of the Terpsichoreans, it was decided to change the name of the club. They will now be known as the Reno Library and Social Club. We are informed that during the Winter they will give semi-monthly dances, debates and entertainments of different variety, all the proceeds to be donated towards establishing a reading room and library. They will give their first party on the 14th of December, and also a grand sheet and pillow slip ball on New Year's Eve. See ad.

ESTHER.—To-night commences the series of entertainments, entitled Esther, the Beautiful Queen, by seven of Reno's best singers, under the direction of Prof. Hakes. These entertainments will be treats that we seldom enjoy. Reserve your seats this afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock as the box office will be open between those hours. Reno Opera House will be crowded to a jam this week.

BOOMING.—The stock market opened very strong for the week, and the rise has every indication of being permanent. Money is getting easier and Eastern capitalists are investing. The mines were never in better condition than at present, and important developments may be looked for shortly. We look for the market to improve daily.

SOLD OUT.—Dave Ehler, of Wadsworth, has sold his hotel at that place. We now advise him to migrate to Reno, and make his fortune.

GO AROUND TO THE SAUG SALOON, on Virginia street, if you would have good liquors. A fine lunch spread at Vanetta's for his patrons. Give him a fair trial.

SWITCH KEY LOST.—Charlie Stoddard has lost a V. & T. switch key. The finder will confer a great favor on Charlie by returning it to him.

LETTER.—A letter addressed to R. Leeper, Reno, remains in the Virginia City office for the want of a cent stamp.

ASSAY.—The new body of ore discovered in the Com. Pos south drift assays well—$507 to the ton.

PAID IN.—Washoe county has paid into the State Treasury, on account of December settlement, $30,500 86.

A GOOD PLACE TO BUY RUBBERS.—Those in need of rubber boots would do well to call and examine John Sunderland's stock before purchasing elsewhere. Look at his prices: Hip boots for $5 00, Knee boots for $4 00; boy's knee rubbers, $3 00; youth's knee rubbers, $2 00; ladies' knee rubbers, $1 50; men's Arctic, $1 50; ladies' Arctic, $1 25; ladies' gum shoes, 75; children's, .50, and everything else in proportion. A full and complete stock of boots and shoes always on hand. First class boots and shoes made to order. Repairing neatly done.
